517 am

Liz and Ashley stood around talking for 30 minutes.

7:30 AM Mike decided to come and yell at me for not covering my other aisle. There was somebody in that aisle I was unaware that there was no longer anyone over there and then when I told him I have a disability and that's why I can't stow 200 packages. He wanted to proceed to laugh at me. All the while there was other associates not working dancing on the floor and several packages kept getting missed the pas were told and just blew it off

Assigned to stowing

Ashley again parked computer cart near my aisle

I was assigned two aisles and there was a trainee put in the one next to me.

After break I was unaware the trainee had been moved due to trying to keep up with my own Asile.

645 Mike comes into my asile very rudely and is very confrontational towards me. I told him I was unaware nobody was in the other asile and that I'm doing my best to keep up but I have a disability called Crohn's. He laughed at me and said I have Crohn's as well and can still stow over 200 packages an hour

Situation

Ashley again park's computer behind my asile a 25-28 to stare leer and intimidate me. There was a trainee placed into 27-28 allowing me to focus on my asile so I did. After 630 break I was unaware that the trainee was moved due to lack of communication. I focused on my asile. About 645 Mike decides to come to my asile being very rude and disrespectful. I said no it's not he then proceeded to threaten to beat me up in the parking lot so I moved to a different aisle. Then Zach tried to make me go back in that aisle I told him the situation and about the threat of violence and he just walked away. Went to dalton who took it seriously in the moment as of 5-6 I haven't heard of a resolution or outcome to the threat of violence towards me in the workplace even though Amazon claims to have a zero tolerance violence or threats of violence policy.
